DESIGNER & BRAND STORYTELLER

01 — HELLO

I help you tell your story, then I put it to work.

I'm Marcela, a graphic designer and brand storyteller living here in Bermondsey. By day, I design YouTube thumbnails for channels like Disney Kids and MasterChef World TV: visuals made to make people stop and click. Now I'd love to do the same for the businesses on my doorstep.

Most small businesses don't need a big agency. They need someone who listens, understands what makes them different, and turns that into a website, a brand or content that people remember.

WHERE EVERY PROJECT STARTS

The Story session

Once your project is booked, we sit down for an hour, in person or on a call, to talk about how your business began, who your customers are, what they love about you and where you want to go. It's included in every project, and it's the reason the words and visuals I create sound like you, not like a template.

Websites

Designed, written and published around what your business actually needs.

Branding

Logo, colours and a simple style guide so everything looks like it belongs together.

Content

Instagram posts, carousels and Reels, written and designed, ready to post.

INCLUDED IN EVERYTHING I MAKE

- A Story session before we start
- A fixed quote, agreed in writing
- Revision rounds included
- Words written by me, approved by you
- Clear timelines from day one
- Everything you pay for is yours

Flyers, menus or a one-off design: just ask and I'll send you a quote.

Extra work

Anything outside the agreed scope, or beyond the included revisions, is £50 per hour, always agreed with you first.

04 — HOW IT WORKS

From first chat to launch day.

01 Say hello

Send me a message. We have a quick, free 15-minute chat about what you need. No obligation.

02 Your quote

A fixed price in writing: what's included, timeline, revisions and who pays for which tool.

03 Deposit & materials

You pay 50% to book your slot and send photos, logo, details and access to your accounts.

04 Story session

One hour together to understand your business, your customers and your goals.

05 I create

I write and design everything. Your timeline starts the day the deposit and materials arrive.

06 Your feedback

You review and tell me what to change. Websites include two rounds of revisions.

07 Launch

You pay the final 50%, and your website goes live or your content is handed over, ready to post.

08 Afterwards

Join the care plan for updates, or come back whenever you need something new.

WHY THE TIMELINE STARTS WITH YOUR MATERIALS

The most common reason projects run late is waiting for photos, text or logins. Starting the clock once everything is in means I can promise you a date and keep it.

Every account for your business is set up in your name. You pay the providers directly, and you give me access so I can do the setup. If you ever decide to move on, nothing gets lost: your domain, website and content are yours.

Every service above lets you invite me with my own login. You stay in control and can remove my access at any time.

My fee is separate

Tool and subscription costs are paid by you to the providers. I'll check current prices and limits with you before we choose anything.

07 — BEFORE OUR STORY SESSION

A few questions to think about.

No need to write anything down. Just have these in mind and we'll talk them through together.

1. How did your business start, and why?
2. What do you sell or offer? What are your best sellers?
3. Who are your customers, and what do they say about you?
4. What makes you different from others nearby?
5. Three words for how people should feel when they find you.
6. Two or three businesses you admire, in any industry, and why.
7. What should people do next: call, book, visit or buy?
8. What do you already have: logo, photos, domain, social accounts?

so... let's make something together
